

Achilleas KARADIMITRIOU

National and Kapodistrian University of Athens (NKUA)

Achilleas Karadimitriou is Adjunct Lecturer at the Department of Communication and Media Studies of the National and Kapodistrian University of Athens. He also works as communications expert in the programme/organisation “Life Evolution” (Exelixa Zois, in Greek), financed by Stavros Niarchos Foundation (SNF). He holds a Ph.D. Degree in Policy and Organisation of Public Service Television in the European communication field (awarded by the National and Kapodistrian University of Athens).

He has been engaged as research associate in various research programmes (The Media for Democracy Monitor 2020 run by the Euromedia Research Group, check4facts - Public Discourse Fact-Checking by The National [Greek] Centre for Social Research, ISCH COST Action-Populist Political Communication in Europe, YouthActiv - Jean Monnet - Information and Research Activities by the University of Piraeus-Greece, 11 Nations Study of Comparative Political Knowledge and Media Consumption). He has also been Adjunct Lecturer in AMC College in Athens-Greece (in collaboration with the Queen Margaret University of Edinburgh, BA Media Production - Journalism strand). His research interests and academic publications focus on broadcasting policy, media framing and journalism professionalism in the context of the participatory media era.