

Natálie ŠVARCOVÁ

Charles University

Natálie Švarcová is the finance officer of the EUMEPLAT H2020 project at Charles University in Prague.

During her PhD in Economics, she focused on migration, European economic integration and modelling of the labour market. She was a lecturer of the courses in Economics, Public Finance and Internal Market of the European Union at the Charles University in Prague. She also taught Economics of Transition at the New York University in Prague.

She held the position of Vice-Dean for Doctoral Studies and later on Vice-Dean for Economic Affairs at the Faculty of Social Sciences. She held the position of secretary of the faculty responsible for economic and personnel matters of the dean's office of the faculty.

She currently works as a grant administrator and executive assistant of the CJEF journal.