

Babette LAGRANGE

Ghent University

Babette Lagrange obtained a master's degree in Philosophy at Ghent University (Summa cum laude).

To further explore their interest in the topics around gender, diversity and sexuality, she followed and obtained the MSc Gender (Sexuality) at the London School of Economics and Political Science.

Babette's research has mainly been focused on affect theory and gender and sexuality issues.